Case No – AD(OI) – 10/2023

Dated: 10th May 2024

To,

All interested parties,

Subject – Scope of the product under consideration and product control numbers in the anti-dumping investigation concerning imports of “vacuum insulated flask and other vacuum insulated vessels, of stainless steel” originating in or exported from China PR.

1. Reference of all interested parties is invited to the above-cited subject. The Authority had, on 20th September 2023, initiated the said anti-dumping investigation vide Notification F. No. 6/10/2023-DGTR. The scope of the product under consideration and product control numbers were redefined vide notice dated 26th February 2024 published on the DGTR website.

2. In response to the request for clarification regarding the inclusion of parts of vacuum-insulated flasks and other vacuum-insulated vessels within the scope of PUC, it is clarified that parts like the lid, cap, and bottom are not covered within the scope of PUC. It may be noted that the scope of the PUC is vacuum-insulated flask and other vacuum-insulated vessels, of stainless steel and it covers the “vacuum-insulated body” of flask and other vacuum-insulated vessels, with or without parts like lid, cap and bottom.

3. In case of sale or import transaction in unfinished/incomplete form of the product i.e., vacuum insulated body with or without lid, cap and bottom, please submit data regarding vacuum insulated body separately in the questionnaire and identify it clearly. Interested parties may also report appropriate adjustments, with supporting documentary evidence, for ensuring a fair comparison of the vacuum-insulated body with complete/finished vacuum-insulated flasks or other vacuum-insulated vessels.

4. Accordingly, all the interested parties, i.e., the domestic industry, producers/ exporters/ importers/users etc., are given an additional time of 7 days to provide the above information in the questionnaire response.

5. As trade remedial investigations are time-bound in nature, no further extension of time will be granted in the captioned matter.

This issues with the approval of the Designated Authority.
