Subject: Instructions for filing response/submissions in the case of anti-dumping investigation concerning imports of “certain Antioxidants” originating in or exported from China PR and Singapore.

All the interested parties are advised to comply with the following instructions while filing their response(s) or making any submission((s) to the Authority.

1. All interested parties are advised to file their questionnaire responses/other submissions to the case officers through email. It is instructed not to make submissions via links to download files.
2. In case, the submission is made in multiple parts, it is instructed to provide an index table in each part outlining the contents of all parts/emails and documents enclosed. Please ensure page numbering on all submissions.
3. It must be ensured that the narrative part of the submission is in searchable MS Word/PDF format and data files are in MS Excel format.
4. The non-confidential version of the questionnaire response or other submissions should preferably be circulated to all other interested parties on the same day and, in no case, later than the day following the filing of submissions on a confidential basis.
5. The non-confidential version of the information filed by the interested parties should be a replica of the confidential version with the confidential information preferably indexed or blanked out (where indexation is not possible) and such information must be appropriately and adequately summarised depending upon the information on which confidentiality is claimed.
6. The non-confidential summary must be in sufficient detail to permit a reasonable understanding of the substance of the information furnished on a confidential basis. However, in exceptional circumstances, the party submitting the confidential information may indicate that such information is not susceptible to summary, and a statement of reasons containing a sufficient and adequate explanation in terms of Rule 7 of the Rules, 1995, and relevant trade notices issued by the Authority, as to why such summarization is not possible, must be provided.
7. Where the original documents are in a language other than English, you are requested to ensure that the true translated version is provided along with the original documents.

Failure to adhere to the above instructions may result in the response/submission being discarded and/or the interested party may be considered non-cooperative, without further notice.
