To,

All interested parties

Subject: 2nd Extension of timeline for filing comments/submissions on the scope of Product Under Consideration (PUC) and Product Control Number (PCN) methodology in the anti-dumping investigation concerning imports of "Clavulanic Acid (also known as Potassium Clavulanate) and its Amine Salt" originating in or exported from China PR and European Union – reg.

1. The Directorate General of Trade Remedies initiated the anti-dumping investigation concerning imports of "Clavulanic Acid (also known as Potassium Clavulanate) and its Amine Salt" originating in or exported from China PR and the European Union vide Initiation Notification No. 6/51/2026-DGTR dated 30th September, 2026.

2. Subsequently, vide notification dated 22nd October, 2026, the Authority extended the time for filing comments on the scope of the PUC and PCN Methodology up to 30th October, 2026.

3. The Authority has received a request from an interested party seeking a further extension of time for filing comments.

4. Having considered the request received and in the interest of providing adequate opportunity to all interested parties to present their views, the Authority hereby grants a second extension of time up to 21st November, 2026 for filing comments/submissions on the scope of the PUC and PCN Methodology in the subject investigation.

5. All interested parties are advised to ensure that their submissions, along with confidential and non-confidential versions, wherever applicable, are filed on the SETU Portal within the extended timeline, in accordance with the applicable Trade Notices.

6. Since trade remedy investigations are time-bound in nature, no further extension of time shall be granted for filing such comments/submissions.

7. This issues with the approval of the Designated Authority.
